ABOUT ME

I am a passionate and dedicated UI/UX Designer with over two years of experience in designing user interfaces for both mobile and web platforms. My journey in this field has been shaped through various design competitions and real-world projects, allowing me to build a strong foundation in design principles and user-centered thinking.

I excel in team collaboration, critical thinking, and effective communication — key skills that support my ability to deliver intuitive and impactful design solutions. With a blend of practical experience and adaptability, I am committed to creating meaningful digital experiences that solve real user problems.
